

1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

3 JOSE PEREZ,

4 No. C 12-0788 CW

5 Plaintiff,

6 ORDER DISMISSING
7 ACTION FOR FAILURE
8 TO PROSECUTE AND
9 VACATING MAY 30,
10 2012 CASE
11 MANAGEMENT
12 CONFERENCE

v.

13 JP MORGAN CHASE BANK NA, et al.,

14 Defendant.

15 Plaintiff Jose Perez filed an application for leave to 16 proceed in forma pauperis (IFP). Plaintiff's IFP application was 17 assigned to a magistrate judge who determined that it was 18 incomplete. After Plaintiff failed to provide supplemental
19 information requested by the magistrate judge, she wrote a report
20 and recommendation that the IFP application be denied without 21 prejudice because the information provided was insufficient to 22 determine whether the IFP application had merit.

23 On May 10, 2012, the Court issued an order adopting the 24 magistrate judge's report and recommendation. The order stated
25 that, within seven days, Plaintiff could re-file his IFP
26 application or re-file his complaint with the filing fee. The 27 Court warned Plaintiff that failure to take either action would 28 result in dismissal of his case without prejudice.

1 Because Plaintiff has failed to take any action, this case is
2 dismissed without prejudice. The case management conference
3 scheduled for May 30, 2012 at 2:00 pm is vacated.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
